Your best friend in the workforce

From cuddly pooch to rescue hero... obedience school to war zone...

What do you look for when finding the right dog for the job... Alert, curious, wanting to please, are all characteristics that will take a cute puppy, or even a rescue hound, to the status of Top Dog.

There is almost no limit to the number of jobs a dog can master - from life saver and personal carer to entertainer and protector of the environment...

Their skills are incredible across so many roles...

Search and Rescue, Guide Dogs, Therapy Dogs, Sled Dogs, Guard Dogs, Herding, Detection, Conservation, Acting, Companionship.

We take a look at what it takes to get to the top, who is going to succeed and who is not... the science, the psychology, the determination.... plus we meet the dogs on the job, their trainers and those they serve... as well as explore what has made them the best in the business.

Top Jobs for Dogs: the remarkable stories of our truly devoted furry friends.
